EASTER SUNDAY
CYCLE A

REFLECTION

Happy Easter! May the joy of the Risen Lord be with you and your loved ones on this day made by the Lord. Easter 2020 will no doubt be remembered as the Easter when we were locked in our homes in the fight against COVID-19, protecting not only ourselves but our loved ones from spreading this potentially deadly virus. Lest we feel that our Easter celebrations are less having locked ourselves behind closed doors, remember that the Apostles did the same for fear of the authorities, and Jesus still came into their midst. Jesus also walked with the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus to calm their fears and help them understand what had happened and when he appeared to the Apostles it was with these words: "Peace Be With You, as the Father has sent me I send you." Since the beginning Jesus has sought to do the Will of Our Heavenly Father; he humbled himself to become like us in all things but sin, he allowed himself to be mocked, scorned and rejected by the arrogant and deceitful, and in reconciling us to the Father he allowed himself to be sacrificed, crucified for our sins. All of creation came into being through Jesus and now Jesus has come into creation to redeem it forever. He has set us free! We now live and die in the confidence that Jesus our Saviour has fulfilled the prophecy of the new covenant. Through Jesus Christ we are heirs to His kingdom. This is why we have such hope, this is a hope that only God can give. Whatever pain or suffering we may go through now will end and there will be an Easter for us too. The "good Friday" of today or tomorrow will come to an end and we will be raised up again. The resurrection is the truly one of the cornerstones of our faith, so much so that we remember it weekly at the Sunday Mass; this is the sacrifice that we re-present at every Eucharist, but especially on the Sundays throughout the year. Jesus has proven that He is who He said He is, the Son of the living God. We can put all our trust in Him. We can now hope in the resurrection and life everlasting. In the meantime, even during the time we are passing through now, let's count each day all the things that God gives us that shows us that he continues to loves us even as He gave His only Son as a sacrifice for us. So let's appreciate it at and show and share it with others. There will be many who regret Easter 2020 as the Easter when "we could not do this, or could not do that," do not be discouraged, but remember instead that Easter is so that we might Be. I would like to wish everyone a Happy Easter and look forward to celebrating with everyone as soon as possible. Be assured of my prayers for you daily, and please pray for one another.

DID YOU KNOW?

Are there proofs for the Resurrection of Jesus?

There are no proofs for the Resurrection of Jesus in the scientific sense. There are, however, very strong individual and collective testimonies by a large number contemporaries of those events in Jerusalem.

The oldest written testimony to the Resurrection is a letter that St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians around twenty years after Christ's death: "...He was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. Then He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most whom are still alive..." (1 Cor.15:3-6) Paul is recording here a living tradition that was present in the original Christian community two or three years after Jesus' death and Resurrection, when he himself became a Christian - on the basis of his own staggering encounter with the risen Lord. The disciples took the fact of the empty tomb as the first indication of the reality of the Resurrection. Women, of all people, discovered it - according to the law of that time they were not able to testify. The Apostle John - "saw and believed".
